Lisbon Parking Changes OK'd

Council Approves Purchase of Meters

LISBON — Village Council Monday night passed the street committee's recommendations regarding parking meter changes and authorized purchase of 222 meters.

Two new meters will be installed in front of Pilmer's Store on W. Lincoln Way, and one in front of Dr. J. E. Jones' office will be removed.

A meter will be placed in front of the Manos Theatre. Thirteen meters on the east side of N. Jefferson St. will be converted to eight hours' parking for 25 cents. They also will take nickels and dimes for brief parking periods.

All other meters will remain unchanged.

In other business, Mrs. John McCullough presented Council with a petition bearing over 50 names of persons protesting speeding on W. Washington St. The petition was turned over to the street committee. Also attending the meeting were Mrs. Joan Cope, Mr. and Mrs. Al Fitch and McCullough.

Clerk-treasurer Ray Hempstead resigned from the Sadie VanFossan Swimming Pool Commission, and Fred Steele, member of Council and president of the commission, suggested Donald McClintock, Deming employee, to replace him. Mayor Stockman appointed McClintock, and Council confirmed his appointment.

Theodore Pekarchick, 115 Pritchard Ave., requested Council to permit the Junior Chamber of Commerce to hold a traffic check the week of May 18 on E. Lincoln Way, near the library. Council authorized the check which is expected to be held May 18, 19, 20 and 22, beginning each evening at 6:30.

Council passed an ordinance under emergency rules to pay $100 toward a mayor - council stenographer. The balance of

Council to Get Wage Information

Concrete information concerning possible wage hikes for municipal employees, is expected to be brought out when City Council meets as a committee of the whole at 7 tonight.

Michael Schuller, chairman of the salary and wage committee, told Council at its meeting last week that his group should be able to make some recommendations tonight. Other councilmen on the committee are Jack Rance and Harold Astry.

Rance made a study earlier in the year which shows that in most cases Salem's salaried workers are paid less than their counterparts in cities of 10,000 to 20,000 population. He also found that employees here paid on an hourly basis are generally paid more than the average.

Surplus Foods, Relief Offices To Be Moved

Columbiana County commissioners and Robert Bycroft, county welfare director, announced today they will rent the west half of the O.S. Hill garage, at 117 E. Washington St., Lisbon, as the site of the county relief offices and surplus foods storage.

It is hoped that the structure will be refurbished by June 1 so the move can be made then.

The state welfare department approved renting the building space for $300 per month. Included is a parking lot west of the building across the alley now rented as a used car lot. The surplus foods storage will be at the rear of the building. There will be ample space for unloading and picking up surplus foods, the commissioners said.

The welfare departments of offices presently are on the second floor at 123 S. Market St., above the Nichols Store. The county pays $75 a month for

Theological Students Maintain Rights Vigil

WASHINGTON (AP) — For nine days now — and no one knows for sure how much longer — theological students of the Protestant, Jewish and Roman Catholic faiths have been standing in a quiet vigil at the Lincoln Memorial.

They intend to stay, 24 hours a day, until the civil rights bill is passed by Congress.

It has been a chilly, wet and undramatic demonstration — three students on a shift grouped around a black-and-white sign across the circle from the long flights of steps leading to the statue of the Great Emancipator.

Monday night, however, a rival camp was set up barely 20 feet away.

George Lincoln Rockwell, head of the American Nazi party, led a half dozen of his followers in to distribute leaflets against the civil rights bill. Briefly the two sides mingled, exchanging their literature, before police shooed off the Nazis who lacked a permit.

To present a rival vigil the Rockwell group left behind one of their party — a stiffly erect 19-year-old in a tan storm-trooper cap decorated with a swastika.

"We'll be here as long as those people are," said Robert Lloyd of Arlington, Va., a follower of Rockwell.

It was a damp night and the students stood in the mud watching as buses unloaded hundreds of tourists at the monument.

Some of the tourists — most of whom were out-of-town high school students on the annual spring trip to the capital — stopped. A few took pictures with flash cameras. Some read the sign which says "Civil rights is basically a moral issue."

"We are brothers before God," Some asked questions.

A heavy-set boy spoke to Lloyd, then crossed the 20 feet to confront Joseph Brodie of

Hoffa Retreats In Row Over Lawyers' Bills

Counsel Says Union Can't Pay Fees Of His Attorneys

WASHINGTON (AP)—James R. Hoffa has backed off from a crackling Teamsters Union row over whether the union should continue paying his legal fees, stirring speculation he is losing his iron grip on the Teamsters.

Hoffa, never known for ducking scraps but now beset by troubles with the law, yielded to a demand by one of his vice presidents that the union stop paying the bills until it can be determined whether or not it is in violation of federal law.

Edward Bennett Williams, the Teamsters general counsel who has defended Hoffa in some of his legal battles, is reported to have ruled that the union will be breaking the law if it pays the fees.

Hoffa, according to an aide, made his decision in Chicago where he is on trial on federal charges of misusing $20 million in union pension reserves.

"Mr. Hoffa wants to find out if such payments are legal," said Teamsters Vice President Harold J. Gibbons in St. Louis. "The decision will not be reversed until the legality is upheld by a nationally outstanding authority."

Gibbons, who resigned in December as Hoffa's executive assistant, and closest aide, said, "Mr. Hoffa made the decision in view of a request by Teamsters Vice President John J. O'Rourke of New York."

Gibbons denied reports that the funds had been cut off by the union's secretary-treasurer.

"It was strictly Mr. Hoffa's decision, until the legal issues are settled," said Gibbons. An attorney representing 12 members of Teamsters Local 107 in Philadelphia sent a letter which contended the union payment of Hoffa's legal fees is illegal, Gibbons explained, and copies went to all the union vice presidents.

"Teamsters vice presidents agreed Friday to hire an outstanding legal authority from outside the union to study the problem," he said. "Hoffa made his decision in a phone call to the vice presidents today."

Williams' opinion that it is illegal to use union funds to pay Hoffa's trial expenses had the potential of putting both the Teamsters strong man and the 15-member executive board on a financial spot.

Williams reportedly told executive board members they could be made personally responsible if they continue authorizing use of union funds for Hoffa's legal defense.

Further, Williams reportedly advised that Hoffa could be liable for personal income taxes on union money used to pay his

Boys Carrying Knives Arrested In Lisbon

LISBON — Two youths, aged 16 and 17, were being held this morning in village jail after they were found by Police Sgt. Kenneth McKenzie to be armed with a 19-inch knife and a switch-blade in a local diner.

The youths, from Baxter, W. Va., said they were en route to Hammond, Ind., to visit an uncle of one of the boys. They will be turned over to juvenile court.

The motorist who picked them up at Routes 7 and 30 northwest of East Liverpool and bought them coffee, said he didn't know they carried knives or he wouldn't have given them a lift. One of the youths said they carried the knives for protection.

Chamber for LBJ?

C. of C. Gives Johnson 'Warm' Reception

WASHINGTON (AP)—If his reception by the U.S. Chamber of Commerce is a reliable indicator, President Johnson has won the general approval of the nation's business community.

But many of those who applauded or laughed 60 times during his hour's rambling discourse before the group Monday obviously are going to take a hard look at Johnson's dealings with the big labor unions before they reach any final political judgments on him.

Johnson's reception by the chamber was an astonishing one. After his speech, one member of the overwhelmingly Republican audience observed: "Maybe not a soul here will vote for him. But he's sure done some damage to Republican campaign contributions."

Another commented: "This fellow is trying to get elected unanimously." The chamber is historically a poor audience for Democrats. The late Paul Butler, when Democratic national chairman, was booed during one hot debate on government welfare spending.

There was booing again in 1961 when Sen. Joseph S. Clark, D-Pa., grew angry at the hostile reception he received in a debate with a conservative economist at a U.S. Chamber convention. Clark advised the delegates to "grow up;" he got a storm of derisive jeers.

President John F. Kennedy, in his lone appearance at a chamber session, received little more than polite applause.

Although former President Dwight D. Eisenhower never missed addressing the chamber's annual meeting in his eight years in office, the friendly receptions he received never approached the storm of applause that Johnson won Monday.

The chamber's applause for Johnson was the more remarkable because Edwin P. Neilan, retiring chamber president, has been stumping the country for months denouncing the administration's domestic policy.

Neilan, a Delaware banker, has accused Johnson of wearing "the false face of frugality." He has used such terms as "immorality," "seduction by subsidy," "picking the taxpayer's pocket," and "bribery" to describe the administration's budget and domestic programs.

Johnson warmed his business listeners with a forecast that profits after taxes will reach $30 billion this year, up nearly $3 billion over 1963.

Ruby To Get Sanity Trial

'Mind Falling Apart,' His Lawyers Claim

DALLAS, Tex. (AP) — Jack Ruby may escape the electric chair if his counsel can convince the jury in a sanity trial that the balding convicted slayer of Lee Harvey Oswald is insane.

Judge Joe B. Brown said Monday he will empanel a jury at the first suitable date, in response to a sanity trial request filed by Ruby's sister, Eva Grant.

Texas law requires a judge to hold such a trial if the defense asks for it. Judge Brown presided over the first month-long trial, in which a jury rejected a defense plea that Ruby was insane Nov. 24 when he shot Oswald, accused assassin of President John F. Kennedy.

Ruby's lawyers said Monday that their client's condition has worsened since his conviction March 14, that his "mind is falling apart" and he has delusions that his crime has brought about a slaughter that will bring death to 25 million American Jews.

If a jury finds Ruby insane, he will be committed to a state

Board Plans For Primaries Next Tuesday

With the primaries only a week away, the county election board has stepped up its work in preparation for the election.

Frank O'Hanlon, clerk, said two assistant clerks will visit nursing homes and hospitals Wednesday and Thursday where the board has received applications for disabled voters' ballots.

The clerks will cover the southern half of the county Wednesday and the northern half on Thursday. However, O'Hanlon emphasized they will process only applications already received.

The board so far has issued 206 civilian absentee and disabled voters' ballots, applications and 127 ballots for servicemen and civilians residing outside the United States.

Deadline to apply for civilian absentee and disabled voters' ballots is 4 p.m. Thursday and the ballots must be back in the board's hands by noon Friday.

Rhodes Okays Poverty Plan

Ohio to Participate In Aid Program

COLUMBUS, Ohio (AP)—Gov. James A. Rhodes notified Commerce Secretary Luther Hodges today that Ohio is joining the federal Appalachia program to participate in the development of poverty-designated areas.

Rhodes named Development Director George Wilson as the state representative on the Appalachian Regional Commission directing the program in West Virginia and portions of eight other states.

The governor acted after some 400 representatives of 18 southeastern Ohio counties meeting in Athens Monday asked to participate in the federal plan in the expectation of receiving massive aid for new highways and other development activities.

Rhodes had urged rejection of the federal plan in favor of a state development program to

Sections of South Raked by Tornadoes

By The Associated Press
Sections of the Deep South were raked by small tornadoes and high winds Monday, injuring at least 10 persons. The Plains states were hit by thick snow and winds up to 81 miles an hour.

An overabundance of moisture combined with a high-level cold front to cause the unstable air over the Southeast.

Mississippi, Alabama, Georgia and Florida bore the brunt of Monday's storms, including heavy rains which dumped more water into the already swollen streams in the region. At Appalachicola, Fla., 4.46 inches of rain fell in six hours.

Flash flooding was reported along tributaries of the Chattahoochee and Flint rivers as an estimated 4.5 inches of rain fell in parts of eastern Alabama and western Georgia in a 24-hour period.

Hailstones the size of golf balls fell on Atlantic Ocean beach communities near Jacksonville, Fla. The Weather Bureau said the hail measured up to one and one-half inches in diameter.

Five persons were injured at Moss Point, Miss., when high winds ripped carpports from homes and uprooted large trees. A woman and two children were injured near Mobile, Ala., when a twister demolished a frame

Architect Also Offers Less Elaborate Plans

Public Meeting Set Monday on Proposed Expansion Program

By GLENN SCHOTTEN
Robert F. Beatty, East Liverpool architect, presented to the Board of Education Monday night plans for changing the Senior and Junior High Schools, which if adopted as a whole, would cost a total of $811,481.

Beatty estimated the cost of the Senior High School building expansion alone to accommodate the freshman class would be $410,616, with an additional $176,462 for renovation of the Junior High for a total of $587,078.

However, the architect offered six different proposals for the board to consider, ranging from the buildings only to a more elaborate scheme, including equipment and outside improvements. Under this latter plan the Senior High estimate is $538,769 and the Junior High, $272,712 for a total of $811,481.

Public Meeting Monday

Although Beatty will explain his plans at a public meeting Monday night at the Senior High, one of the major changes would involve the construction of rooms in the "patio" area of the Senior High School which is now lawn. Some 20-classes of space will be needed to move the freshman class from the junior to the senior high.

At the Senior High the total cost of building, $410,616, added to equipment, $48,155 and black-topping the outside area, $79,998, would total $538,769. At the Junior High the cost of the building improvement alone would come to $176,462 with the alternative of installing a replacement, gas-fired hot water heating plant at an additional cost of $96,250.

Teachers Consulted

Supt. of Schools Paul E. Smith said teachers had been consulted in devising the plans before they were drawn up by the architect. The new plans, he said, will provide more space at the Senior High than those drawn up originally when the expansion was first discussed.

Beatty told the board the goal was to "get the best educational plan for the money." He said the cost of school construc-

Ohio Family En Route to Visit Former Soviet Guests

AMSTERDAM (AP)—The McKenzie family of Portsmouth, Ohio, had a brief but busy stopover in the Dutch capital today en route to visit the Moscow family who were their houseguests last Christmas.

Mr. and Mrs. James C. McKenzie and their son Phillip, 14, spent their four-hour stopover on a tour of the city, noted for its many canals and bridges.

The Ohioans are making their first trip abroad. They said they were "excited and looking forward" to the 10 days they will spend in the Moscow home of Mr. and Mrs. Viktor Pozdnev.

Pozdnev, 36, an automotive engineer; his wife Nina, a high school English teacher, and their children, Anatoly, 16, and Olga, 6, spent eight days with the McKenzies at Christmas. The goodwill visit was sponsored and financed by the Portsmouth Junior Chamber of Commerce.

The Russian family's American Christmas was a big event in Portsmouth, and Pozdnev told Moscow newsmen "the whole city was astonishingly kind and friendly." He said the McKenzies treated them "just like members of the family."

McKenzie, a 34-year-old insurance broker, said he and his family will view the Russian May Day celebration and hope to visit the Kremlin, Lenin's Tomb and a ballet performance. He said they are particularly excited about seeing how the Russians live and learning about their culture.

The McKenzies, who left four younger children with relatives, said they got the invitation from the Pozdnevs last Tuesday and thought about it overnight before accepting.

Before the Pozdnevs left Portsmouth, McKenzie said, "They said that they wanted us to visit them and to see Russia but at the time we thought it was just small talk and that it would be impossible."

They have several gifts for the Pozdnevs, including cosmetics, dolls, jewelry and clothing. The Russian family brought the McKenzies a table cloth, jewel box, chocolates and a clock shaped like a Sputnik space satellite.

INDUSTRIALISTS TO MEET About 175 leaders of business and industry in the Mahoning and Shenango Valleys area will attend a meeting of the Industrial Information Institute at 6:30 p.m. Wednesday at the Youngstown Country Club.

Walter G. Barlow, president, Opinion Research Corporation, will address the group on "What Accelerating Forces of Change Mean for Business."

The changes affect "not only gasoline, but all other retailing and service business which a motorist normally requires," Spahr continued.

"We expect to reach a decision on future restaurant operations in time to put it into effect for the summer travel season," he added.

Sohio also is going into the motel business, with construction of a facility on Interstate 90 east of Cleveland.

Spahr said last year was the best in Sohio's 93-year history, but first-quarter results indicate the record will be topped this year.

Net income for the first quarter was $10,189,000, up 35 per cent over the $7,520,000 earned in the first quarter 1963. This is equivalent to $1.85 per share, compared to $1.35 for the 1963 period.

Net sales and operating revenue were $116 million, up only 4 per cent from the $111.5 million for the first quarter 1963.

ANSWERS YOUR PROBLEMS

Dear Ann Landers: Our 16-year-old son is going with a lovely girl who is 15. She is a refined, intelligent person and popular with both students and faculty. The problem is her parents' peculiar idea of discipline.

The girl can accept one date a week, either on Friday or Saturday night. She must be at home by 12:30 a.m. Her parents are usually in bed by the time she gets home but she must knock on their bedroom door and announce that she is there.

Then — and this is what baffles us, Ann — she may entertain her date as late as she wishes.

Last night our son got home from her place at 4:30 a.m. We don't think this is right. Would it be proper for my husband to call the girl's father and ask him to please send the boy home by 1 o'clock? Or should we stay out of it and let the boy use his own judgment? — OVER A BARREL.

Dear Barrels: YOU HAVE been letting your son use his own judgment and it's terrible.

It's shocking that so many parents of boys feel the girl's parents should make all the rules.

Your son is a minor and you are responsible for him. Insist that he is at home by 1:15. This hour allows plenty of time for fond farewells.

Ex-Wife's Gift

Dear Ann: For Christmas my husband's ex-wife left a gift for him under our tree. It was a half dozen boxer-type shorts and a half dozen undershirts.

I suggested to Ellis that he return the gift because it was too personal. To make the point, I asked him how he'd like it if another man gave me a panty and bra set for Christmas. He said I was out of my cotton-pickin' mind and that it was not the same thing.

We've been arguing about the shirts and shorts since December and he still refuses to see it my way. Please settle this before July, because Ellis has a birthday coming up and she might do the same thing again. — JANE.

Dear Jane: Sorry, Doll, but I think you're making a whale out of a minnow. Men's shorts and undershirts are not in the same category as women's lingerie.

Granted, this was not the most tasteful gift in the whole wide world, but it was practical. It certainly isn't worth five months' debate. Talk about something else.

Ugly Duckling

Dear Ann: I'm a college girl who lives with my brother and his wife. I'm deeply concerned about my brother's tyrannical attitude toward his children.

He is very strict with his sons, which is all right, but it is heartbreaking the way he picks on the middle boy during supper and then forces the child to eat.

Rickey is only 7. He is not as bright as his older brother, nor as cute as his younger brother. In addition to his other problems, he must wear thick glasses and he has a hearing problem.

Rickey doesn't have as big an appetite as his brothers but his father insists that he clean his plate. Every night there's a battle. My heart aches for the boy.

Will you say something in your column about forcing children to eat — GUEST IN THE HOUSE.

Dear Guest: No person (regardless of age) should be forced to eat at any time, for any reason. The stomach is not prepared to receive food when a person is emotionally upset. Children who are forced to clean their plates sometimes develop stomach trouble which can plague them for the rest of their lives.

Ann Landers will be glad to help you with your problems. Send them to her in care of The Salem News, enclosing a stamped, self-addressed envelope.

New Way Found To Stop Hair Loss, Grow More Hair

HOUSTON, Texas — If you don't suffer from male pattern baldness, there is now an excellent chance you can stop your hair loss and grow more hair.

For years "they said it couldn't be done," but now a Texas firm of laboratory consultants has developed a treatment that is not only stopping hair loss... but is really growing hair!

They don't even ask you to take their word for it. If they believe that the treatment will help you, they invite you to try it for 32 days, at their risk, and see for yourself!

Naturally, they would not offer this no risk trial unless the treatment worked. However, it is impossible to satisfy everyone.

The great majority of cases of excessive hair fall and baldness are the beginning and more fully developed stages of male pattern baldness and cannot be helped.

But how can any man or woman be sure what is actually causing their hair loss? Even if baldness may seem to "run in your family," this is certainly no proof of the cause of YOUR hair loss.

Actually, there are many scalp conditions that can cause hair loss. No matter which one is the cause of your hair loss, if you wait until you are slick bald and your hair roots are dead, you are beyond help. So, if you still have hair (or at least some fuzz) on top of your head, and would like to stop your hair loss and grow more hair... now is the time to do something about it, before it's too late.

Loesch Laboratory Consultants, Inc., will supply you with treatment for 32 days, at their risk, if they believe the treatment will help you. Just send them the information listed below. All inquiries are answered promptly, by mail and without obligation. Adv.

How to get a bigger allowance when you trade your car

When they tell you it's not the first cost that counts, but the upkeep too—that's not the whole story either. Read on . . . When you visit our showroom and chat with one of our salesmen you're really just talking with another car owner. There's not a man on our staff who isn't a car buyer himself, with the same interest in getting the most for his money as you. He knows your side of the story! And here it is . . .

First you want the best deal you can get when you buy.

He'll explain to you our Spring sale of '64 Comets and how it can save you lots of money right off the bat. It's merely a matter of sales volume. Comet sales are up—131% over a year ago,* and still climbing. So we're keeping prices down at rock-bottom to keep our sales sky-high.

Next you want economy every mile you drive.

And don't think because a car saves you money by the mile that it's a "dog." Matter of fact, the '64 Comet is the World's 100,000-Mile Durability Champion (each member of a team went that distance recently at Daytona, averaging over 105 mph for the course!). The point is Comets have a host of built-in service-saving features to give economy new meaning!

*Same period '64 vs. '63.

And finally—you want the most in trade when the time comes.

Well—now we come to the happy ending of our story. For high resale is Comet's language! This one has the tradition of record high resale—one of the hottest items in demand on anybody's used car lot. Yes, if you want to know how to get more in trade—start with a Comet in the first place! And the first place to come for that is here!

Mental Health Needs Support

In its few months of operation, the Columbian County Mental Health Clinic at Lisbon has become an indispensable facility.

Out-patient care has met the hopes of the citizens who worked so hard to get the clinic established. Some patients have come voluntarily, while others have been referred to Dr. Jakabs Knezniskis, the psychiatrist-director, by physicians and clergymen throughout the county.

Expanded use of the Clinic is anticipated and for this reason, the Columbian County Mental Health Association plans to increase the staff to include a psychiatric case worker and a clinical psychologist.

This, naturally, will add to the expense of maintaining this vital new agency. Currently, during Mental Health Week, the association is conducting a campaign to raise $20,000, a realistic goal, with the state offering to give the county $2 for every dollar raised locally.

The county clinic is serving a real need and your donation will help increase these services to others who suffer from mental disabilities.

Bridge Out Ahead

It is tempting to think a standoff between railroad management and labor was dissolved by the strike settlement reached Wednesday. But there still is a bridge out ahead, and no one knows what can be done about it.

The strike settlement Wednesday merely settled secondary issues on which four unions struck the Illinois Central April 8. Friction flared immediately into this threat of a national strike by Saturday. This threat has been removed.

But the most troublesome issue has not been touched.

Railroads still do not know if unions and the federal government will let them trim their payrolls and control of their operating costs, like other parts of the transportation industry.

The United States gives routine lip service to free enterprise but still has not determined whether railroads must operate in perpetuity under regulations framed to control them when they were a transportation monopoly.

Everything about transportation has changed since then, except the dead hand of federal control on railroads. Passenger ways have been heavily subsidized by the federal government. So have railroads, but in another way — loans to keep them from succumbing to their subsidized competition.

We share President Johnson's enthusiasm about averting a railroad strike; it would have been a disaster for the railroads, the rail unions and all the rest of us. But no issue of substances has been settled. The bridge is still out ahead.

It still hasn't been settled whether railroads should be allowed to go it alone as free enterprise, or hobbled with restrictions and taxes until they succumb to federal ownership and operation as the only way to survive.

Of Course It's Impossible

Another series of Unidentified Flying Objects had to happen sooner or later.

A policeman of good repute, Lonnie Zamora of Socorro, N.M., says he saw an object on the ground near the White Sands missile range and it flew away when he approached it.

The Southwest always has been a prime location for UFO. Some think it's because the atmosphere there is conducive to optical illusions. Others believe it's because the topography is attractive to pilots of UFO.

Those who believe this are skeptics. They question the conventional wisdom, which holds that in a universe so fast it is unreasonable to believe only one infinitesimal speck sustains intelligent life — the planet its inhabitants call "Earth."

These skeptics are braced for the discovery that inhabitants of other heavenly bodies have been doing routinely what Earthlings hope to do in the near future — travel to other places in the Universe. They seize on every shred of evidence that this may be so, while believers in orthodox wisdom stoutly deny everything and the U.S. Air Force systematically pooh-poos the evidence.

Policeman Zamora will be pooh-poohed, too, now that he has turned skeptic. He never can be the same again.

Outstanding Group

The achievement of the Salem High School Robed Choir in winning three "superior" ratings in state competition at Springfield Saturday brought new honors to Director Edwin Miller's choral group. Only five others of 22 competing high school aggregations were awarded top ratings by the judges.

Salem citizens who annually look forward to the Robed Choir's public concerts, and especially the Christmas program, share in the joy of a well-earned accomplishment.

Just Legitimate

By Truman Twill

Estimates vary on how much money will be spent in New York City by visitors to the new World Fair. The largest figure I have seen is $2 billion.

This is only a meat-and-potatoes figure, however. It does not include the long-range spending the fair is designed to stimulate. Every exhibit is supposed to cast bread on the water in one way or another. This is a major enterprise.

The idea of a fair fascinates me. I grew up a few blocks from a fairground. I was fascinated then by the idea that anything which can part people from their money is legitimate if it stays within certain bounds.

It does not need to be honorable, in other words — just legitimate. There was a little game in which the customer tried his skill at ringing money on a platform with harness rings. As a neighborhood kid who worked on the grounds, I learned to know some of these things. You couldn't put one of those rings around a coin, especially if you aimed it. But how the suckers tried!

OF COURSE, a world's fair is nothing as sleazy as a county fair. I don't know what is going to bug the eyes of the visiting firemen at the New York fair, but it won't be a hootchie-kootchie show. They will have a fancier name for it.

The food will bear no resemblance to the cotton candy, waffles, hot dogs, fried chicken and hamburgers of the county fair. Neither will the prices. The scale runs up past $6 a helping in fancier restaurants, starting around the $2 level, but this is for real meals, not snacks.

This is the way it will go — every little luxury helping to add up to the $2 billion the fair is expected to put into the pockets of the people promoting it. No one would think of comparing this to the county fairs that draw crowds out in the sticks, but there are similarities.

Chiefly, there is the similarity that the big one is designed to do what the little ones still do, but infinitely faster — separate people from money. For us who never tested our wits in this game, the idea of a fair, a carnival, a circus, or any kind of a show is fascinating.

It's a way to make a living, founded on the demonstrated fact that millions of human beings are so bored they will pay for anything to relieve their boredom. They will go up in a balloon, or down into a cave. They will pay to be turned upside down and inside out.

They will consider it a privilege to be turned upside down, shaken until their dentures are dislodged, gulled, fooled, inconvenienced, blistered, spavined and cleaned to the last dollar bill.

IT IS WHAT you call an "educational experience," meaning you learn something from it.

That's the way it was with the county fair back home; you learned something. No one can throw a harness ring around a half dollar.

No one can throw an embroidery hoop around an object too big for the hoop.

No one can knock over simulated milk bottles with lead in the base. Anyone can try, though, and there's no law against trying if you're willing to pay the price.

To Each His Own

Mystery Cloaks U.N. Team

By VICTOR RIESEL
UNITED NATIONS

For five months now a special Hungarian Communist team of technicians has been operating mysteriously inside strategic little British Guiana on South America's northern coast. This nation is tiny but strategic. Since it borders on Venezuela and Brazil, automatic weapons can easily be slipped across the unguarded lines to Communist terrorists and Castroite rural guerrillas in these larger anti-Communist nations.

Compounding the mystery is the sponsorship of the Hungarians by the United Nations. The four-man Hungarian team was dispatched to British Guiana by someone in the U.N. Technical Assistance Program secretariat at the special request of British Guiana's avowedly pro-Communist Prime Minister, Cheddi Jagan.

WHEN HE ASKED the U.N. for aid in surveying bauxite deposits in his country, Dr. Jagan insisted that the technical team be made up of Communists only. Somebody in the U.N. granted his wish.

Shortly after he sent his request with the built-in-ultimatum, last winter, the U.N. sent him a "three-month feasibility study (team) on the potential of the bauxite industry." Led by Ferenc Beretvas, an executive of the Hungarian Aluminum Trust, the four men arrived in Georgetown, B. G., early last December. They are still there. Their expenses are being paid by the U.N.

After I reported this strange operation over a month ago, there were inquiries at the U.N. Mission to the U.N. One inquirer who sought the reason for the U.N.'s exclusion of non-Communists from the survey team received the following reply from Ann Kennedy, our mission's public affairs officer: "Ambassador Stevens on asked me to acknowledge your letter concerning the article by Victor Riesel concerning the team of United Nations technical assistance experts currently in British Guiana," she wrote the other day.

"THE UNITED STATES is greatly concerned that an all-Hungarian team was selected, and we have been following developments closely. While the U.N. Technical Assistance Recruitment program solicits candidates from all U.N. member states, the final selection and composition of missions is decided by the country which made the request.

"For the most part, teams are truly international, composed of nationals from several countries. We have consistently voiced our support of this principle, which is fundamental to the ideals of the U.N.

"While this instance of a selection of an all-Hungarian mission is not in the spirit of U.N. principles, I can assure you that on the whole the U.N. Technical Assistance Program is making a substantial and positive contribution to the growth of the less developed countries... and that we Americans can give it our support."

Obviously someone in the U.N. ignored the policy of the U.S. and that of other democratic nations and deferred to a tiny land which is not a member of the U.N. British Guiana has not yet received full independence from Britain. It governs itself internally.

WHO, THEN, inside the U.N. secretariat made such a concession to Prime Minister Jagan? He and his politically powerful wife control the pro-Communist ruling Peoples' Progressive Party and are friends of the enemies of the U.S.

Dr. Jagan has said that he considers Fidel Castro to be the greatest liberator of the 20th century. Mrs. Jagan, the party chief disciplinarian, is close to the Chinese Communists and is eager to help them make their way into South America and the West Indies.

Of this she assured her comrades right in Peking itself. The mainland Chinese truly rolled out the Red carpet for her during a two-week visit there in 1962. On August 31 of that year she was rewarded with a personal conference with Chairman Mao Tse-tung. There is no greater accolade for any visitor to Peking.

There were banquets and demonstrations in her honor. At the welcoming banquet on Aug. 18, Vice Premier Chen Yi toasted her and said that, "The Chinese people consistently supported the struggle of the people of British Guiana and the West Indies for independence."

REPLYING to this Communist gallantry, Mrs. Jagan said it had been her long awaited dream to see with her own eyes the great country of China. She added that, "the Chinese people genuinely and firmly supported the struggle for national independence. The success of the revolution in China is an inspiration for people the world over striving for national independence."

She called Communist China "a strong friend."

Mrs. Jagan returned with concrete pledges of aid from the Peking government — which also is not a U.N. member.

How then does it happen that the Jagans — allies of an aggressor nation still outlawed by the U.N. — can have their way inside the U.N. councils? And what is the Hungarian Communist team really doing in that strategic area of Latin America?

Defeat for United States

By DAVID LAWRENCE

An ignominious defeat has been administered to the United States government — a blow to its prestige and influence in world affairs. Russia has deliberately violated a pledge to the American government and once more defiantly threatens the safety of this country.

This turn of events comes as a surprise to the American people, who were being assured by President Johnson only a few days ago that the agreement to limit uranium production was an indication of the peaceful purpose of the Soviet government and that a new wave of good feeling had begun.

But the Russian leopard, it has been disclosed, has not changed its spots. In utter disregard of the resolutions of warning adopted by Congress two years ago, the Soviet government has assumed the right to engage in military operations in this hemisphere that are plainly aimed at the United States.

When the American government demanded in the autumn of 1962 that the Russian missiles and troops be removed from Cuba, the Soviet government promised in an exchange of notes with President Kennedy to remove the missiles and agreed to a system of inspection by the United Nations to verify whether good faith was being observed.

CASTRO — DOUBTLESS with the connivance of the Russians — declined to permit the inspection. Accordingly, the United States reserved the right to continue aerial reconnaissance as a measure of protection to the American people.

More than 600 flights have been made by American planes during 1962 and 1963, and the diplomatic issue as between Russia and the United States has, outwardly at least, remained dormant. Now Cuba has issued its protest asking the United Nations to support its demand that the American airplane flights be discontinued. Russia immediately announced its concurrence in the Cuban demand.

Thus have the Kennedy and Johnson administrations been grossly deceived by the Soviet maneuvers.

Also, inside the United States a certain amount of brainwashing has occurred and there are even strange suggestions heard in our midst that it would be better to let a few thousand Russian troops or technicians remain in Cuba so as to prevent a "trigger-happy Castro" from setting off a military conflict by shooting down American airplanes.

This implies a reliance on the alleged peaceful intentions of the Soviets which is contradicted by the latest events.

The Russian official newspapers, for instance, in articles last Friday — unquestionably inspired by the Moscow government — declared that there is no reason why Russia should not supply Cuba with weapons.

THE FLIGHTS of American airplanes were denounced as violations of Cuban sovereignty and of the U.N. Charter as well as of international law. Yet the U.N. Charter explicitly recognizes regional understandings like the Monroe Doctrine.

The controversy is significant mostly because it reveals that, instead of an improvement in Soviet-American relations, there is underneath no letup in the hostility and intrigues of aggression emanating from the Communist regime in Moscow.

THE RIGHT of self-defense and the adoption of precautionary measures against attack is inherent, of course, in the sovereignty of every country, and there was no justification in international law or in the U.N. Charter for the original dispatch of 15,000 troops to Cuba by the Soviet government or the construction of missile bases on an island more than 4,000 miles away from Soviet territory. The only object of such an expedition was to threaten the safety of the American people.

This flagrant violation of international rules has been further aggravated by the manifest dishonesty and unmorality of the government in Moscow, which pretended in its notes to the late President Kennedy to be willing to agree to international inspection of Cuban missile bases and now goes back on its word. Under the circumstances, aerial reconnaissance by high-flying planes is inevitably the right of the United States government.

THE NET RESULT of the whole controversy could be to convince the American people that further parleys on "disarmament" with the Moscow regime can hardly be risked and that any agreements signed will not be worth the paper on which they are written so far as compliance by the Soviet government is concerned.

Today In History

Today is Tuesday, April 28, the 119th day of 1964. There are 247 days left in the year.

Today's highlight in history: On this date in 1788, James Monroe, fifth president, was born. Monroe's two administrations were hailed as "An Era of Good Feeling," marked by the acquisition of the Floridas from Spain, the Missouri Compromise of 1820 and the promulgation of the Monroe Doctrine.

On this date In 1788, Maryland ratified the Constitution.

In 1876, Queen Victoria was proclaimed empress of India.

In 1939, Germany denounced its non-aggression pact with Poland.

In 1942, Japanese forces reached Lashio, the terminus of the Burma Road.

In 1945, Italian dispatches told of the execution of Benito Mussolini and his mistress, Clara Petacci.

Ten years ago... Millions watched the televised Army-McCarthy hearings in Washington.

Five years ago... British Field Marshal Montgomery aroused controversy when he charged that U.S. leadership had slipped because President Dwight D. Eisenhower, secretary of State Christian A. Herter and former Secretary John Foster Dulles weren't "very well, very fit."

Tariff Barriers Hurt U.S.

By RAYMOND MOLEY

With the passive concurrence of the U.S. Treasury, a number of European and Asiatic countries have worked out a way to undercut U.S. producers in the American market, even when production costs are the same.

This unhappy story is especially pertinent as U.S. negotiators leave for Europe to get ready for a new round of tariff cuts.

American firms, naturally, are crying "foul."

Representatives of affected U.S. companies have made private visits to President Johnson and U.S. Treasury officials to present their appeals, but to no avail.

TAKE THE CASE of one Luxembourg steel producer as an example.

This firm sells its steel for a high price in Luxembourg and Belgium and for an even higher price in West Germany's regulated market. These markets are so heavily protected by tariffs and other barriers that U.S. firms can't compete.

This company makes enough money off these sales at home so that it can afford to sell its steel for whatever it can get in the United States and other world markets.

Example: the price this firm gets for steel pipe in West Germany is almost 170 per cent of the price it sells for in the United States.

Though high European tariffs and other barriers protect this producer in its local markets, U.S. tariffs are so low the Luxembourg company can easily move into the U.S. market with its below-cost prices.

For example: European levies on American-made steel pipe are 8 to 17 times U.S. tariffs on European-made pipe.

THE DOUBLE STANDARD for tariff and trade barriers is a result of U.S. tariff concessions made over more than two decades. They're aimed at helping war-hit countries get on their feet. Over the years U.S. tariffs on many imported steel products have been reduced by around 60 per cent.

In return for these heavy U.S. concessions, the European and Asiatic countries agreed to eliminate their hidden restrictions on U.S. imports, sometime. These promises were never carried out.

The double pricing is supposed to be illegal if carried to extremes. The U.S. Treasury is supposed to check up on such practices, penalize imports from countries which practice blatant "dumping."

U. S. GOVERNMENT men, however, say they can do nothing in many cases. The foreign firms have found a loophole in the Treasury regulations.

These regulations specify there's "dumping" and a penalty if the firms that export to the United States sell a considerable amount of their product at home or abroad at prices markedly higher than they sell here.

But by forming combines which handle each other's products, the Luxembourg firms, for example, can arrange so that one, two or three companies will handle most of the high-price sales and another firm handle the cut-rate sales to the United States and other countries.

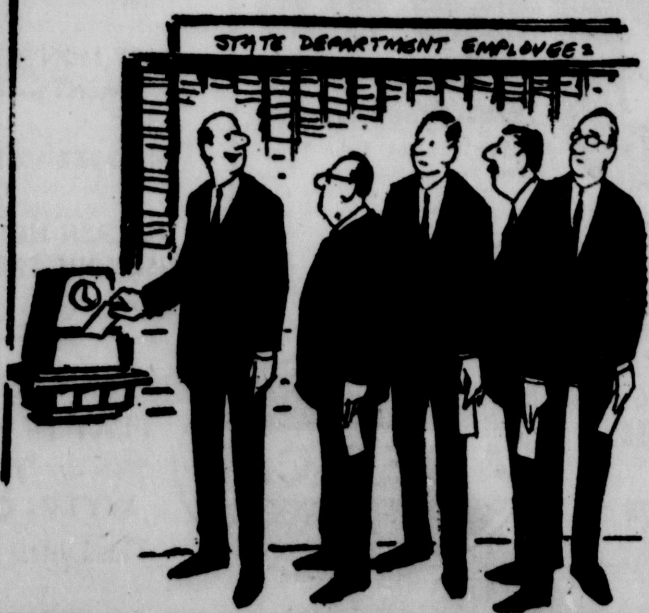

Then, on the surface, none of the firms have an extensive flagrant two-price system; some of the firms sell for high prices, others sell for low. But the combine — all of the firms — share the high profits from the sales in protected markets and share the losses from the cut-rate sales.

A Treasury man says: "What can we do in that case? Nothing, because obviously they won't admit to us they're a combine."

European firms are further aided by tax rebates on some exports. By international agreement, such rebates would be illegal for U.S. firms, even if the United States wanted to grant them.

avoid a poverty tag that he asserted might keep industry and tourists out of the Ohio Valley Region.

But he said after the Appalachia decision that the Ohio plan, already set up, would supplement federal operations.

The decision to seek federal help, made by the newly named Ohio Valley Research and Development Council, followed statements by Congressman Wayne Hays, D-Ohio, that highway funds would be available only to those in the Appalachia plan.

But Ohio officials expressed concern here because they said a report to President Johnson by the Appalachian Commission made no mention of funds for Ohio highways.

Maps of Appalachian roads stop at the Ohio border, they added.

Backbone of the Ohio plan is a super-highway between Cincinnati and Bridgeport, Belmont County, to open the southeastern counties for general development.

Ohio already has asked the Area Redevelopment Authority (ARA) for a grant to make a study of the proposed southeastern road to be called the Appalachian Way, Wilson said.

Hoffa

trial costs estimated in the hundreds of thousands of dollars.

Hoffa was said to be angry, emotional and upset about Williams' opinion, which informed sources say came as a bolt out of the blue and reversed an earlier opinion.

It appeared to be the second sharp blow in succession to the stocky union leader who until recently had weathered a sea of troubles in courts, in congressional hearings and in the labor movement.

Last month Hoffa was set back by a federal jury tampering conviction in Chattanooga, Tenn., in which he was sentenced to eight years in prison.

His legal expenses for appealing that conviction pile atop those for defending himself in the current Chicago trial. The outcome of this trial, as viewed by reliable labor sources, is even more threatening to Hoffa's control of his 1.7 million union members than the dispute over paying his legal expenses.

Qualified sources, however, see the battle over lawyer's bills as adding to the mounting pressure within the union that may finally explode and hurl Hoffa from his Teamsters' throne.

Water Levels At Berlin, Milton Lakes Controlled

YOUNGSTOWN — U.S. Army engineers yesterday cut the release of water from Lake Milton to 360 million gallons a day, and the flow from Berlin Reservoir to 7 million gallons daily.

For a time, a 13-inch to 14-inch wall of water had poured over the Milton spillway, while the four 36-inch valves continued to release water as the engineers sought to lower the levels in both Milton and Berlin to provide storage capacity for flood control.

The level in Milton yesterday was 2.5 feet from the top of the spillway. The lake's storage neared the summer level.

The engineers reported the three main reservoirs contained 56 billion 400 million gallons, or more, than two-thirds their normal storage capacity.

Soviets Blasting To Prevent Flood

MOSCOW (AP) — Soviet engineers blasted tons of rock and earth today trying to release a dammed — up mountain river which threatens to send a devastating flood down the Zervashan Valley toward Samarkand.

The Communist party newspaper Pravda said more than 700 million cubic feet of water have built up behind the landslide that tumbled into the rain-swollen Zervashan River last Friday and blocked its path through a mountain gorge.

Engineers, hoping to cut a 985-foot canal through the natural dam, had planned to touch off 110,000 pounds of explosives today. Their goal is to drain the pent-up waters into the riverbed, which has dried up below the landslide.

Blasting and excavation specialists have been flown from Moscow and other centers to the danger site 1,700 miles southeast of Moscow.

The area is due north of Afghanistan, across the Pamir Mountain range which forms the frontier between Afghanistan and the Soviet Union.

An official source in Moscow said it would take more than a half million pounds of explosives to blast through the huge slide.

his immediate release. That was exactly the opposite of what I did tell them."

The judge declared, "It took unmitigated gall to contact Frank Dickey, who had been crippled by Daniels and whose brother was killed in the attempted robbery, and try to get him to recommend mercy."

The judge said Daniels' military service was no more creditable than that of millions of other Americans in World War II. The robbery victim was a trained Marine and in all probability would have been of much more use to his country than was Daniels, Judge Sharp said.

Daniels, Adams and Rogers decided during a drinking bout on Christmas eve of 1935 to commit a robbery, it was brought out at the trial. Arming themselves with revolvers they cruised about in Rogers' auto until they came upon a milk truck operated by the Dickey brothers.

Adams and Daniels got out and accosted the brothers. Frank Dickey threw a milk bottle at Daniels who shot him in the elbow. Adams fired at Clarence Dickey, wounding him fatally in the abdomen.

Adams was caught shortly afterward. Rogers and Daniels fled, but Rogers was located a year later.

Daniels was not apprehended for some time. He enlisted in the army under the assumed name of Albert Jones and served in the Pacific area.

Prior to the commission of the murder he had been in some trouble and his fingerprints were on record.

After his discharge, it was discovered that Jones was in reality Daniels. He was apprehended in Akron and returned Nov. 6, 1945, to Columbiana County where he was tried and convicted almost 10 years after the crime.

Albert-Wallace Vows Are Heard Sunday

Palms, ferns and vases of white carnations and gladioli graced the altar of the First Church of the Nazarene at Sebring when nuptial vows were exchanged Sunday uniting in marriage Miss Amee Anne Albert and Samuel Roger Wallace.

The bride is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. William Edward Albert of Sebring, and Mr. and Mrs. Olen Wallace of RD 1, Homeworth, are parents of the bridegroom.

Rev. H. W. Minglehoff officiated at the double ring 2:30 p.m. ceremony, assisted by Rev. Robert Swanson. William Clark presided at the organ console and Mrs. Edward French was vocalist.

Escorted to the candlelighted altar by her father, who gave her in marriage, the bride wore a floor length of silk organza over taffeta sheath gown with overskirt. The three-quarter sleeved bodice boasted a shallow scooped neckline and galloon lace detail midfront. Her elbow length veil was held by a matching halo hat and her flowers were white roses and ivy in tapered cascade arrangement.

Serving her sister as matron of honor was Mrs. Ronald A. Ward of Hyattsville, Md. Miss Ida Wallace, Mary Lou Wallace and Margaret Wallace, sisters of the bridegroom, were bridesmaids.

Their gowns of aqua silk organza over taffeta were sheath styled with short full overskirts. Their headpieces were matching silk braid rosettes with nose veils, and they carried cascade bouquets of miniature carnations.

Ronald Ward was best man for Mr. Wallace. Dale Kitzmiller of Canton, Thomas Wallace of Damascus, brother of the bridegroom, and Richard Loudon of Damascus, ushered. Kenny Dale Kitzmiller, nephew of the bridegroom, carried the rings.

The bride's mother appeared in a navy blue sheath dress with pink rose corsage. Mrs. Wallace's dress was a floral print silk sheath dress in shades of green complemented with green cymbidium orchids.

Mrs. Thomas Wallace registered the guests who attended the reception at Mile Branch Grange hall. Hostesses were Mrs. Norman Wallace, Mrs. Dale Kitzmiller and Miss Marilyn Shaver.

From the reception the newlyweds left for a honeymoon to an

Hints from Heloise

DEAR HELOISE: Never tear a stamp off an envelope . . . always tear the envelope off the stamp!

Lay the envelope on the table with the stamped side down. Pick up the corner of the envelope, use your fingernail to loosen the corner of the stamp, hold that corner of the stamp down against the table, and pull the envelope off the stamp. Easy??

BETTY HOFELE.

DEAR BETTY: I just tore two stamps off envelopes . . . results: torn stamps! Then I tore two envelopes off two stamps by your method . . . perfect stamps!

Thanks, gal. Now, tell us why . . . somebody?

HELOISE.

DEAR HELOISE: If you are one who has light-colored carpeting in your home, try using an art gum eraser (cost only a dime) on sooty spots and foot prints. It removes 'em like magic.

This is an excellent emergency treatment and works beautifully for us.

FLORENCE.

DEAR HELOISE: When cutting a meringue pie, try greasing your knife with a little oleo or kitchen oil first. Your meringue won't tear! This is far more successful than dipping the knife in hot water each time you make a slice.

CASSIE.

DEAR HELOISE: I just discovered a new trick — new to me, anyway.

To wit — connect your plastic garden hose to the drain on the bottom of your HOT water heater and drain the heater. Then proceed to unsnarl the kinks and knots in your synthetic hose, stretching it out to its full length.

Now disconnect the hose from the water heater, coil it and put it back into its original storage place.

So . . . you have killed two birds with one stone. First you have drained off the sediment from the bottom of your hot water tank, which should be done once a month anyway. Second, the hot water softens the plastic hose and makes it pliable and manageable again. Leave garden hose stretched completely out before re-coiling.

MR. R.

Ladies, if you will look on your hot water heater you will see (perhaps for the first time) that directions do say "Drain this tank every month or two."

Draining keeps hot water heaters from rusting out and perhaps might save your budget because you won't have to buy another one if you follow the directions on the heater. Right now go and look at your hot water heater and see what the directions say. Sure would be nice to use the money (you might have spent on repairs) for something thing else. Eh?

HELOISE.

DEAR HELOISE: When the middle of my cotton sheets wear out, I cut off the top and bottom and sew them on the ends of our flannel sheets, thus making them long enough to tuck in at the end and foot.

This sure keeps those short flannel sheets in place.

JENNIE GUZZETTA.

DEAR HELOISE: I place my pastry board across the wash basin when cleaning out my medicine cabinet. I find it a very handy table to hold all those bottles and jars while I'm cleaning the cabinet.

GOP Chiefs Focus on Pennsylvania Primary

PHILADELPHIA (AP)—Voters rate Gov. William W. Scranton's stature as a potential Republican presidential candidate in his home state and nominate one of three Democrats for the U.S. Senate in the Pennsylvania primary election today.

The primary ballot lists no presidential possibilities of any party, but Scranton backers, apparently acting on their own, are behind a drive to get an outpouring of write-in votes for the 46-year-old, first-term governor and former congressman.

Scranton backers hope the write-ins will give him added lustre as a potential candidate and cause him to change his repeated stand that he is not a candidate for the nomination and would accept only a sincere and unengineered draft.

Delegates to the national conventions also will be selected. Backers of Sen. Barry Goldwater, R-Ariz., said they hoped to pick 6 to 8 of the 54 convention delegates. Scranton has asked for an unpledged delegation, with himself as chairman in a favorite-son role. The 10 at-large delegates already selected have agreed to this.

Also at stake were nominations for 27 congressional seats, two judges of the state superior court, auditor general, treasurer, 209 state house seats, and 25 state senate seats.

There is a three-way fight for the Democratic nomination to the U.S. Senate to face incumbent Republican Hugh Scott, who had only token opposition.

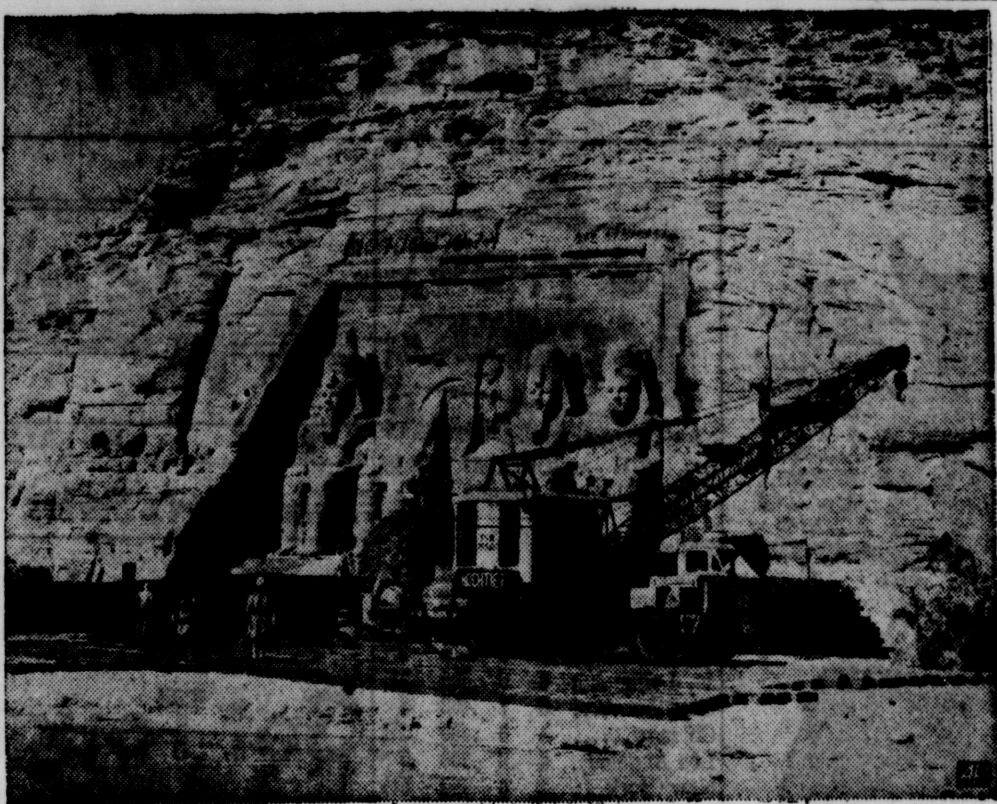

The state Democratic organization backed Justice Michael A. Musmanno, 67, of the State Supreme Court. His main opponent is Genevieve Blatt, 56-year-old state secretary of internal affairs.

The third candidate is David B. Roberts, prothonotary (court clerk) of Allegheny County.

None of the Republican presidential hopefuls campaigned in Pennsylvania. Goldwater forces said anything less than 800,000 write-ins for Scranton should be regarded as a repudiation of him as a presidential candidate.

Craig Truax, state GOP chairman, says he is hopeful of 100,000 write-in votes for Scranton.

There are 2,654,404 registered Democrats in the state and 2,642,770 registered Republicans.

Major Cigarette Companies Approve Code Covering Ads

NEW YORK (AP)—The nation's cigarette manufacturers are putting their 250-million annual advertising program into the hands of an administrator to enforce a new code banning appeals aimed at teenagers.

The administrator, to be $100,000. He will be given "complete and final authority" nine companies which account for more than 99 per cent of the on all cigarette advertising, the cigarettes made in the United States announced Monday.

Dodgers' Hurler Drysdale Shuts Out Houston 8-0

LA Collects 3rd Straight

Washington Downs Los Angeles 6-2

By MIKE RATHET Don Drysdale, the last healthy member of Los Angeles' Big Four, has given the Dodgers' beleaguered pitching staff its most impressive streak since putting together three consecutive injuries.

Taking over where Phil Ortega left off Sunday, Drysdale pitched the Dodgers' second straight shutout Monday night, winning his first game in four starts by limiting Houston to six hits in a 6-0 victory built on a three-homer salvo.

Only one other game was scheduled in either league. In that, Washington whipped the Los Angeles Angels 6-2.

Drysdale's performance and home runs by Frank Howard, Ron Fairly and Willie Davis—the Dodgers had collected only eight homers in 12 previous games—topped off a heartening day for Manager Walt Alston.

Possibly the most important piece of news came from Los Angeles, where Sandy Koufax has been undergoing treatment for a muscle strain in his left arm. Dr. Robert Kerlan reported Koufax might be given permission to throw on the sidelines this weekend.

Besides Koufax, the Dodger staff has been depleted by injuries to Johnny Podres and relief specialist Ron Perranoski while the attack has lost the services of two-time batting champion Tommy Davis. Nevertheless, Alston said the Dodgers' poor start could not simply be traced to injuries.

The injuries have hurt us," he said, but the team was not playing up to par before anyone got hurt. Yes, we're crippled but that isn't all the reason for our troubles.

What we've got to do is win as many as we can while we're crippled," he continued, then move when we get all the injured men back. There is nothing wrong with the morale of this team right now that a couple of good wins and some base hits won't cure."

Howard and Fairly took care of the base hits. Each hit a two-run homer and also collected two singles. Willie Davis added a solo homer and a fine running catch that preserved Drysdale's shutout. With two men on and two out in the seventh, pinch hitter Al Spangler lashed a curling drive to left center that Davis speared with a final lung after a long run.

Two-run singles by Mike Brumley and Don Zimmer gave the Senators four runs in the fourth inning off Angels starter Ken McBride. Fred Valentine drove in the other two tallies, one with his first major league homer.

Hill Rise In Derby Prep Test Today

Dandy K Stretch Running Similar To Carry Back's

By KELSO STURGEON Associated Press Sports Writer LOUISVILLE, Ky. (AP)—If Cecil Carmine's Dandy K. wins the Kentucky Derby, Carmine can go into business with Jack Price of Carry Back fame showing the big names of racing how its done.

Just about everything, from the breeding to the way Dandy K. breaks from the starting gate, is contrary to the traditions of racing. And, just about everything Jack Price did with Carry Back raised the eyebrows of the industry's diehards.

Dandy K., whose stretch running is similar to that of Carry Back's, has won four of his last seven races—including the Fountain of Youth Stakes—and will be a big threat in the Derby if the pace is fast.

Ramsey, Loscutoff Leaving Boston Celtics To Retire

By BOB HOOBING Associated Press Sports Writer BOSTON (AP) — "Maybe it sounds funny because I'm colored and you're white," said K. C. Jones turning to Frank Ramsey and Jim Loscutoff "but the Celtics are a family. I feel your losses deeply."

In the midst of celebrating an unprecedented sixth straight National Basketball Association title Monday night, Boston players found themselves saying farewells again. The Celtics wrapped up the playoff crown by beating San Francisco 105-99 Sunday night.

There had been the departure of past notables Ed Macauley and Bill Sharman, then last year, Bob Cousy. Now co-capt. Ramsey and Loscutoff have retired. Clyde Lovellette and Johnny McCarthy will not likely return.

Willie Naulls will be welcome but may choose dental studies, instead.

"I'm tremendously proud of this team," said owner Walter Brown. "I don't believe any of us will ever live to see another team like this."

"I've grown very attached to Ramsey and Loscutoff in my years with the team," said playmaker K. C. Jones. "We have very different personalities but their retirements are like losing someone very close."

"I love 'em both. Ramsey, variously known as "Mr. Clutch" and "the Kentucky Colonel," drewled his way through some wisecracks until it came time to say goodbye. "Basketball has come a long way in Boston," said Ramsey haltingly. "It's very difficult to leave. We've made a lot of friends."

"When you finally say it's time to quit you have a lot of misgivings," he added choking back the tears. "You wonder if you've really played too long or not long enough."

"If — you ever come down to Kentucky, be sure and look us up, hear?"

As Ramsey sat down, his face buried in a handkerchief, the banquet hall rang with a standing ovation.

"I've always hoped there's some semblance of a chance Ramsey might come back," said Auerbach. "Very few people in the history of sports have been as loyal to an organization as Ramsey."

"Of all the pros who ever entered the NBA, Ramsey came in more ready to play than any. He never was a rookie."

Softball Loops, Umps Meetings Set Tonight

The Church Slo-Pitch Softball League will hold a meeting in the Memorial Building tonight at 8:30.

The Salem Softball Association has also planned meetings for Class AA and Class A fast pitch leagues at 7:30 p.m., and the Umpires Association is slated to hold a session at 7 p.m.

Field Day Attracts 80 At Flying B

The Flying B League's recent field day attracted 80 members. Winners included Homer Detwiler, closest to the pin on No. 6, and Ralph Knepper, closest to the pin on No. 3.

Ron Cope got off the longest drives from tees No. 4 and 9, and Dick Boughton made the longest putt on No. 9.

In the blind bogey event, Jack Linder, Bill White, Jack Wern and Boughton all grossed 72s.

Competition in the loop gets underway May 7.

The Phillies won 87 games in 1963, six more than they won in 1962. They moved from seventh place in the National League to fourth.

Tribe Starts Series With Twins Today

Indians' Opposition Should Get Tougher At Minnesota

MINNEAPOLIS (AP) — The first-place Cleveland Indians will find the going tougher starting today than it was in the opening two weeks of the young season.

Cleveland will play Minnesota, regarded in pre-season polls as one of the top contenders, in the opening of a three-game afternoon series. Dick Donovan (1-0) will face the Twins' Jim Roland (0-1).

The Indians, leading second-place Detroit by a half game in the tight race, will meet a team that beat them 7-6 in the season opener in Cleveland and manhandled the Tribe in 1963.

The Tribe and the Twins played each other 18 times last season and Cleveland won only five of those games. Minnesota was especially hard to beat at home, winning eight of nine decisions. Donovan, a veteran right-hander, lost all three times he faced the Twins last season. Two of those losses were suffered here. Minnesota, now in a virtual deadlock for third place, is long on power with sluggers like Harmon Killebrew, Bob Allison, Jimmie Hall and Rich Rollins. They led the league last year with 225 homers and 722 runs batted in. Rollins, third baseman from Parma, Ohio, so far this season has slammed three home runs.

Theron's Leads In Tourney With 3,198 At Timberlanes

With only two weeks left to go in the Timberlanes Open House Bowling Tournament three Salem teams are among the top 10 teams.

The team series rolled by the IGA crew had a handicap of 420 pins.

Theron's IGA of Enon Valley moved into the number-one spot with a 3,198 series and Allison Electric of Salem rolled its way into the number-three position with a 3,149 set.

John Kail of Waynesburg knocked down 268 pins to take the lead in the actual high game department. He started out by making a spare, then a strike, another spare and then eight straight strikes and finished up by knocking down eight pins on his last ball.

Glen Couchie and Jack Hampton led Allison Electric with 558 three-game sets. Hampton carded 178-210-170, while Couchie came in with 205-170-183.

Freeway No. 2 slipped to second place after leading the event for a few weeks with a 3,169 series. Center Lanes follows with 3,145, Swartz Supply, 3,139; Metros, 3,129; Mullins Press Room, 3,123; Maddrell-Western Plumbing, 3,112; Purcity Dairy, 3,109; and Victors Quick Wash, 3,105.

The Doctor Says

By Dr. WAYNE G. BRANDSTADT

Health Questions And Answers

Q—Is leukemia a form of cancer? If a person with leukemia were cured would this prevent his getting cancer?

A—Leukemia is considered to be cancer of the blood. In the victims, tumors of the spleen are almost always present. There may also be tumors of the lymph nodes and bone marrow.

The newer drugs used to treat this disease may control the growth of the tumors for several years but cannot be considered permanent cures. Whether successful or not, such treatment would have no bearing on the victim's susceptibility to a different form of cancer.

Q—Three years ago at the age of 30 I had a hysterectomy. Since then I have times when I feel crampy and moody just as I used to when I expected my periods. Would the operation have anything to do with these symptoms? Where does the blood go that I normally would have lost with my periods?

A—You have undergone a surgical menopause. This may be partially responsible for your symptoms. The blood you would normally have lost doesn't go anywhere. Menstrual bleeding is a part of the preparation for the renewal of the uterine wall to receive a fertilized ovum. With the uterus removed this is no longer possible.

Q—What are the symptoms of hardening of the arteries of the brain? What can be done about it?

A—Cerebral arteriosclerosis may cause a wide variety of symptoms depending on the part of the brain that is damaged. One of the commonest results is what is known as a little stroke. The victim undergoes a change of personality—becomes untidy, noisy or profane where he was formerly neat, quiet and respectful.

There is no cure for damage that has already been done but to check the process. These steps can sometimes be taken would include getting more rest, drugs to reduce the abnormally high blood pressure, diet to reduce overweight, cutting out smoking and in carefully selected cases the use of a tranquilizer or drugs to enlarge the smaller blood vessels.

Q—Is it harmful to drink coffee that has been reheated? I have heard that this develops some chemical that constricts the blood vessels.

A—Coffee beans are roasted before you buy them so when you make fresh coffee the grounds are reheated. Reheating does no harm but the caffeine in coffee, fresh or reheated, is a mild blood vessel constrictor.

Hasty Conclusions

By HAL BOYLE
NEW YORK (AP)—Jumping to conclusions:

Dandelions, now gleaming like gold coins on millions of American lawns, are among the loveliest plants known to man. Anybody who uproots them before they are through blooming is a snob and a horticultural social climber—and may his green thumb turn blue!

Flying from Chicago to New York last week, I heard a fellow passenger complain. "The trouble with this flight is you get there before you can finish your second martini."

It is said that one of the things Gen. Charles de Gaulle detests most is talking over the telephone. Any man who holds this view can't be altogether bad.

During the 400th anniversary of William Shakespeare's natal year, he is being widely praised as the greatest writer in the English language. If we all weren't so terribly busy, it would be nice to pick up one of his plays and see what the man had to say.

No matter how many people in an office use a pencil sharpener, there usually is only one who will uncompromisingly take the trouble to clean it when it gets full of shavings.

There are only two types of middle-aged people—those who who are grateful for bifocal glasses, and those who'd rather bump their heads against a brick wall.

Even if we didn't have television, we'd probably find something else to bore us. Most of mankind's progress has come from a desire to avoid either work or ennui.

One of the loneliest feelings in the world is to go to a circus by yourself after 40.

No matter how agnostic a man may be, he still likes the sound of church bells.

The thing a fat man wonders most about a thin man is how he manages to keep his shirtfront in. The ordinary fat man gets most of his exercise fighting his shirtfront back into place.

sport when it was a game played by nine men who went the whole nine innings. With the arrival of the platoon system, it became just a form of outdoor automation, more enjoyable to computers than fans.

One of our biggest objections to the higher culture is that no one yet has had the common sense to suggest selling hot dogs at the average symphony concert.

If you haven't had a headache lately, think it over. Maybe you are shirking doing your fair share of the national worrying.
